LOYOLA LECTURE - SUGGESTIONS SOUGHT

Suggestions for speakers for the second term Loyola Lecture are now being accepted by the Loyola Subcommittee of the Concordia University Visiting Lecturers Committee.

Anyone who wishes to submit the name of a well known speaker who would appeal to the entire Loyola community is invited to send it to Bluma Litner at the Loyola Campus Dean of Students Office (AD-135) no later than December 15.

The popular annual lecture has been given in the past by such prominent academic figures as Dr. Rollo May, Prof. Joseph Campbell, Dr. Paul Ricoeur and Dr. Walter Kaufman.

For further information contact Bluma Litner at 482-0320, ext. 341 or 343.
